The island of Papua New Guinea (PNG) has one of the richest and most varied avifauna in the world. Over 700 species of birds have been identified here so far, including around 580 land and freshwater species, 40 sea birds and 90 migrants from countries to the North and South. The passerines include cuckoo-shrikes and trillers, shrikes, thrushes, logrunners, babblers, warblers, fairy-wrens, fantails, monarchs and robins, whistlers and pitohuis, honeyeaters, finches, starlings, mynahs, orioles, drongos, wood swallows, butcherbirds, bowerbirds and Birds of Paradise. Thirty-eight of the 43 known species of Bird of Paradise are found in Papua New Guinea. The extent of the millinery trade of the last century significantly affected the populations of these beautiful birds and as a result, all species of Bird of Paradise in Papua New Guinea are now protected. The non-perching birds include birds of prey, megapods, pigeons and doves, cuckoos and coucals, owls and frogmouths, lorries and lorikeets, parrots, cockatoos, kingfishers and hornbills.

During this tour we will stay at two renowned birding destinations; Rondon Ridge located in the PNG Highlands, and Karawari Lodge in the lowlands. While predominantly a birding trip, we will also be on the lookout for any mammals and interesting flora (particularly interesting Gondwanan species) including orchids. We may also include a visit to Ambua Lodge in the Tari area (which is currently closed) subject to assessing the situation there closer to the time of the tour departure.

Day 6. Friday 9 July 2021. Rondon Ridge-Mt Hagen-Karawari in the Eastern Sepik region.

This morning after breakfast, we will transfer from Rondon Ridge to Mt. Hagen airport where we will take a charter flight (price included in tour) to Karawari in the Eastern Sepik Province of PNG. Our accommodation is in one of the most remote and unspoilt destinations in Papua New Guinea. Inspired by local architecture and built with traditional materials, the lodge provides modern comforts. The lodge's private airstrip and the Karawari River are the only way in or out. The transfer from Karawari airstrip to Karawari Lodge is by boat - the only practical means of transport in this extremely isolated part of the world where stilted villages line the edges of flooded waterways and dugout canoes are the primary mode of transport. There are no roads, no shops and no phones. The Sepik River inhabitants live completely off the land, weaving baskets for catching fish; gathering, preparing and cooking their staple food from the Sago Palm. Karawari Lodge is perched on a ridge 300 metres (985 feet) above the Karawari River with a spectacular view over hundreds of kilometres of dense tropical lowland rainforest. This afternoon we will bird in the area around the lodge before settling into our rooms at the lodge. Accommodation: Karawari Lodge (en suite rooms). Guests are accommodated in cottages built out of local bush materials and inspired by traditional architecture. Despite its remoteness, the lodge has modern en-suite bathrooms, 220V electricity, hot & cold water, comfortable mosquito-netted beds, ceiling fans, and a breezy veranda - all make for a welcome sanctuary after a day's exploration. Meals included: B, L, D.

Days 7-9. Saturday 10 to Monday 12 July 2021 inclusive. Karawari area. The tropical lowland rainforest around the lodge is one of earth's most complex of habitats, housing an immense variety of flora and fauna including an amazing 229 different bird species. We will spend two full days birding in this area, searching for the area's three birds of paradise, the King, Twelve-Wire and the Magnificent Riflebird and other lowland, rainforest and freshwater birds - particularly parrots, including lorikeets, Eclectus, Palm Cockatoos and Edwards-Fig Parrot. Papuan frogmouth, owls, birds of prey, bowerbirds, and a variety of honeyeaters are also found in this area. During this time there will also be an opportunity to visit some nearby local villages where we will be privileged see some of the traditional dances and learn about some of the traditional ceremonies and sacred buildings etc. There will also be an opportunity to purchase some hand-made artefacts directly from the villagers. This is a seldom offered and truly memorable experience. Accommodation: Karawari Lodge (en suite rooms). Meals included: B, L, D each day.

Day 10. Tuesday 13 July 2021. Karawari – Mt Hagen and Rondon Ridge. This morning after breakfast we will transfer from Karawari Lodge to the airstrip for our charter flight back to Mt Hagen (cost included in tour price). On our arrival at Mt Hagen we will transfer back to Rondon Ridge where we will have free time to relax or take the final opportunity to search for our last views of Birds of Paradise and other local birds around the lodge. Accommodation: Rondon Ridge (en suite rooms). Meals included: B, L, D.

Day 11. Wednesday 14 July 2021. Rondon Ridge to Port Moresby to Cairns. This morning we will be transferred from Rondon Ridge to Mt Hagen for our International flight back to Cairns. Based on this year's flights we recommend the group book on the same flight from Mt Hagen to Cairns (Air Nuigini flights PX181 departing Mt Hagen at 10:00 and arriving at Port Moresby at 11:00 and PX98 departing Port Moresby at 17:00 and arriving at Cairns at 18:25 (flight cost not included in the tour price). We will be transferred to an airport hotel during the waiting period at Port Moresby where we can relax by the pool and purchase lunch, snacks etc. The tour arrangements finish at Cairns airport. Accommodation: none. Meals included: B.

The tour arrangements finish here.

Please note: We have been advised that occasionally due to unexpected Air Nuigini flight schedule changes, it might not be possible to return to Cairns on the scheduled day (14 July 2021). We will try to minimise the possibility of delay by advising you of the first morning flight from Mt Hagen to Port Moresby (hence the waiting time in Port Moresby). However, we recommend that you plan to stay in Cairns both tonight and tomorrow night (14 + 15 July 2021) in case the flight schedules out of PNG change. Please do not plan for any international connecting flights during this time.
